

RECRUITING IT TALENT

Since 1993, QED National's clients have relied on us for quality consultants at cost-effective prices. By utilizing our "Know Your Candidate" approach and methodology, QED National has successfully supported its customers in both the public and private sectors.

"Know Your Candidate"

To maintain the highest level of honesty and integrity, QED National performs extensive background checks on each of its candidates. This includes checking for criminal records, verification of employment eligibility, and drug testing. In addition, we insist on professional references and check them in a discreet manner without soliciting or badgering.

Qualifications Assessment

A combination of online technical testing programs and personalized custom tests are employed to assess the skill level of our candidates. This supports our "Know Your Candidate" process and enables us to properly evaluate our candidates.

Respect and Trust

Impeccable standards of respect, privacy and confidentiality are always maintained. We consider both clients and candidates our partners, and trust is critical in those relationships. All candidates and QED National recruiters must agree on a "fit" before the candidate is submitted. Our "Know Your Candidate" pre-screening and interviewing practices eliminate wasted efforts and ensure the right fit the first time.

Consultant Liaison

A full-time, in house professional liaison is employed to answer questions and solve any issues related to our consulting assignments.

Comprehensive Benefits

Our IT consulting staff enjoy a comprehensive medical, dental and vision package, 401K plan, TransitChek® and other benefits.
